

MKG-5316-65
Sports Marketing
Fall 2017
Thursday, 2:00 – 5:00 pm
3 credits

Professor & Coordinator: André Richelieu, PhD
Classroom: R-R160 (please, double check before the first class)
Office: DS-2849
E-Mail: richelieu.andre@uqam.ca
Personal Web page: www.andrerichelieu-sportsmarketing.com
Phone: (514) 987-3000 Ext. 2027
Availability: By appointment only.

Course website: <http://www.moodle.uqam.ca>

Technical support: moodle-etudiants@uqam.ca

SECTIONS

I	Course description	1
II	Topics and course objectives	2
III	Evaluation and scale of grading.....	3
IV	Bibliography	9
V	Course outline	11
VI	Cross evaluation form.....	14

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

The main objective of this course is to lay down the foundations of sports marketing, at a time when the sports industry faces huge transformations through media, technology and globalization.

The course will look at the different actors of the industry, namely teams, players, leagues, federations, events, managers, sponsors, equipment makers, etc. Comparisons between North America, Europe and the rest of the world will be made throughout the seminar by referring to concrete examples and recent research conducted by the Professor. This class intends to broaden our horizons on sport business and sports marketing, as the two are strongly intertwined.

As such, this class is designed for two types of students: first, those who want to have a look at a fascinating industry and learn specific marketing approaches that could be of value in their career; second, those students who are specifically looking to work (if not already working) in the sports industry and want to acquire (additional) knowledge and develop valuable skills.

During the semester, students will develop analytical and practical skills in sports marketing, as well as sports business. Students will be exposed to both theory and practice. In addition, students will also be asked to reflect on the ethical aspects of sports marketing and sports business.

II. TOPICS AND COURSE OBJECTIVES

Ten topics will be covered throughout the seminar:

1. The sports industry today and major trends that impact the actors of the sports ecosystem;
2. The role and value of “fan-actors”, co-creators of their experience and ambassadors of the sports organization;
3. The creation and management of a sports brand;
4. The most effective branding strategies, such as brand extensions, co-branding, lifestyle branding, retro-marketing and storytelling;
5. The development of a value proposition for fans around pricing strategies;
6. The sports arenas, multipurpose stadiums and their socio-economic impact;
7. The benefits of sporting events, be they major or minor ones, and how they can lead to a successful place branding strategy for cities, regions and countries;
8. The risks of sports betting, corruption, doping, etc., as well as their impact on the integrity of sports and the sports brand;
9. The globalization of sports and the internationalization of sports actors;
10. The synthesis of syntheses to crystallize our learnings.

Additionally, students will work on developing:

- Oral and written communications skills;
- Interpersonal skills and team work;
- A reflection on their career path and their personal growth.

The first two skills mentioned above will be used during the oral presentations and the semester project. For the third one, the students will be challenged with a self-evaluation formative / synthesis exercise at the end of the semester, among others.

III. EVALUATION AND SCALE OF GRADING

Students will be marked on:

1. A presentation of a sport-related video advertising (starting September 21, 2017): 10%.
2. A mid-term exam (October 19): 20%.
3. A marketing plan presentation, including a report in power point format (December 7): 25%.
4. A final exam (December 14): 35%.
5. A contribution grade (throughout the semester): 10%.

Nota bene 1: Overall, the individual assignments represent 65% of your final grade.

Nota bene 2: All assignments must be delivered in English.

3.1 A presentation of a sport-related video advertising (10%). Starting September 21, 2017, students will take the stage.

What does the work involve? In teams of six individuals, students will have 20 minutes to present their analysis of a sport-related video advertising. This should involve a sports brand, be it an athlete, a club, a league, an event, a stadium, an equipment maker; a company involved in sports through its partnerships can also be selected (e.g. Gillette, Tim Hortons). The chosen video must be recent and unique to each team (first come, first served basis).

Evaluation criteria. The mark for the presentation will be based on five elements: make sure your exposé displays them explicitly!

- The presentation of the brand attributes and its unicity ("USP"), as well as the target markets (2 points);
- The strengths and weaknesses of the advertising (2 points);
- The recommendations you can make in order to improve the ad AND the managerial lessons you can draw from your analysis (2 + 2 = 4 points);
- The quality of the material used throughout the presentation (power point, video, examples, written English, etc.) (1 point);
- The communication skills of the group members, including the respect of the time allocated for the presentation (1 point).

What to hand in to the professor? Prior to entering the stage, students will hand in:

- A paper copy of their slides;
- A list of references used to prepare the written document;
- A cross-evaluation of your team members (the form can be found at the end of this syllabus).

Moreover, an electronic version of their presentation, including the video link, will be sent to the professor by e-mail.

Nota bene 1: A late submission of the required documents, in all or in part, will result in points being deducted from the presentation grade.

Nota bene 2: All students are on stage for the exposé.

Nota bene 3: Each student grade shall be based on their respective contribution, as reflected by their performance on stage and the cross-evaluation forms.

Nota bene 4: An absence on the day of your scheduled presentation shall automatically result in a mark of “0” for this assignment.

Nota bene 5: The teams and the order in which the presentations will be carried out must be finalized by September 14, 2017, at the latest. All the necessary information will be provided to the professor in writing.

3.2 A mid-term exam (20%).

Content and format. The mid-term exam will be held on October 19, 2017, during class hours¹. The mid-term exam will cover all material presented and discussed in class from the beginning of the term up to what shall be on the agenda during the class held on week 6. This means all the teaching material, the presentations, as well as all the book chapters identified in the syllabus and other articles / examples / exercises posted by the professor on “moodle”. The exam will evaluate whether the students have mastered the key concepts learnt in class and how diligent they have been in doing the preparation that is expected from them in a university course. The mid-term exam will be made up of short answer-type questions.

Exam logistics. The mid-term exam will be 2h00 long.

Nota bene: NO make-up exam under any circumstances.

¹ Unless noted otherwise.

3.3 A marketing plan presentation, including a written report in power point format (25%).

What does the work involve? Each team, composed of six students, which can be the same as your first presentation group, will choose a sports brand. The brand must be different from the one analyzed in the first exposé. It should also have an international potential, if it is not already active in international markets. From there, teams shall prepare a written report and deliver a presentation of a marketing plan, based on the learnings acquired in class, as well as primary and secondary data collected.

All projects are unique to each and every team. The deadline to transmit the information to the professor, in writing, on your choice and team members is September 21.

Content. The report shall be prepared in power point format and include the following sections:

- An executive summary which underlines the main conclusions and recommendations of the report (not to be confused with an introduction, please);
- An introduction;
- A brief but precise presentation of your chosen sports brand;
- A marketing plan, including, of course, the “4 Ps” but also specific examples of marketing actions undertaken by the brand, domestically and internationally, with a direct link to concepts and strategies studied in class;
- A conclusion which summarizes the key points of your work, as well as perspectives for the brand in years to come;
- A bibliography;
- Appendices, if necessary.

Format and deadline. The following instructions must be respected:

- The report shall have a maximum of 20 pages, written in power point format;
- It shall be in Arial font, with characters no smaller than 18 pts;
- It will be printed in colors, with a proper binding;
- The document shall be handed in before entering the stage, December 7;
- You must evaluate the contribution of your teammates and insert all evaluation sheet with your report. Alternatively, a team may decide to fill in only one evaluation sheet.

In addition to their written report, students will have 10 minutes to make an oral presentation. The report shall help you deliver your performance on stage. The evaluation criteria for both the report and the exposé are underlined below.

Evaluation criteria. The presentation and the written report shall be evaluated as follows:

- The written report in power point format: The structure of your work; The clarity of your ideas and recommendations; The research and analysis efforts; The overall quality of your visual presentation and written English (10 points);
- The oral abilities of the team members: The way you express yourself and how prepared you are to enter the stage; The ability to convince your audience; Respect of the time allocated for the exposé; How you carry yourself in front of the classroom (10 points);
- The overall quality of your report and exposé: Content and format-wise, how good is your work? (5 points).

Nota bene 1: All team members are on stage during the presentation.

Nota bene 2: An absence on the day of the presentation shall automatically result in a mark of “0”.

Nota bene 3: Past the deadline, the written report shall not be evaluated.

3.4 A final exam (cumulative) (35%).

Content and format. The final exam will be held on December 14, during class hours². The final exam will cover all material presented in class from the beginning of the term, including all presentations, examples exercises and readings assigned to the students by the professor. The exam will evaluate whether the course objectives were met and whether students were able to develop the skills that are related to the topics covered in class. The final exam will mostly be made up of mini-cases. Through the final exam, I will assess the students' knowledge and understanding of fundamental concepts underlined in class and their ability to apply these concepts to sports marketing cases.

Exam logistics. The final exam will, first and foremost, evaluate comprehension. Consequently, students will be allowed to bring a 21.5 x 27.9 cm “cheat sheet” with notes on both sides of the page. Notes can be hand-written or typed. The final exam will be 3h00 long.

Nota bene: NO make-up exam under any circumstances.

² Unless noted otherwise.

3.5 A contribution to the class (10%)

What am I looking for? A learning experience is a joint responsibility between the professor and the students. Furthermore, we intend to make this class a true seminar. Consequently, students' participation is instrumental in the dynamics of the course and the learning process. This means that students are expected to be physically and psychologically present in class and participate in a constructive way, even those who are introvert. In this regard, I will take into account the attendance, as well as the frequency and quality of interventions, such as by providing a sound analysis of a case study, current examples, etc.

Lack of discipline and savoir-vivre will be penalized in the contribution grade. This includes, without being limited to, the inappropriate use of cellphones and social media in class. As actor Colin Firth once said in one of his movies: "Good manners make a man, they make a woman".

Nota bene 1: Students who cannot or do not want to attend all sessions, physically or psychologically and for whatever reason, should refrain from registering to this course.

Nota bene 2: By respect to your colleagues and the professor, as well as for creating an environment that is truly conducive to learning, cellphones must be closed and stowed away during the course. Failure to do so shall result in cellphones being confiscated.

Scale of grading
A+ = 90% and above	A = 85% to 89.9%	A- = 80% to 84.9%	B+ = 77% to 79.9%
B = 73% to 76.9%	B- = 70% to 72.9%	C+ = 67% to 69.9%	C = 63% to 66.9%
C- = 60% to 62.9%	D+ = 57% to 59.9%	D = 55% to 56.9%	E = 54.9% or less

In order for a student to pass the course MKG-5316, he or she must respect the two following rules:
a. Achieve an overall grade of at least 55% in all the activities of the course, as described in the evaluation section, AND
b. Achieve an overall grade of at least 55% in the individual work and evaluation, as described in the evaluation section. In this class, individual assignments represent 65% of your final grade.

The Marketing Department will refuse any request to repeat an exam regardless of the program of studies, once a student presences herself or himself at an exam and has undertaken such an exam at the scheduled time.

Please, also note that the evaluation period for the Professor's performance is scheduled for the 12th or 13th week of class.

PLAGIARISM, ACADEMIC FRAUD AND HARASSMENT

“Regulation no.18 (Règlement no.18) of the Université du Québec à Montréal deals with the integrity and honesty of academic work in all its forms. This regulation deals with all acts of plagiarism (copying, cheating, etc.) and all the penalties that may be imposed on the individuals found guilty of such act of plagiarism or fraud. It is the responsibility of everyone to be aware of the existence of this regulation. Ignorance of this regulation cannot be invoked in the defence of a student who has committed such an act. Professors and instructors have the duty to enforce its application. The text of Regulation no. 18 dealing with infractions of an academic nature is provided below”.

Plagiarism Regulation no. 18 on infractions of an academic nature
Any act of plagiarism, fraud, copying, cheating or falsification of a document which is committed by a student, as well as any participation in these types of acts or attempts at committing them, during an exam or assignment subject to evaluation or in any other circumstance, constitutes an infraction in the sense or meaning of this regulation.
The non-exhaustive list of infractions includes: The substitution of persons or individuals; The total or partial use of somebody else's text by pretending it to be your own, without reference to the original author; The transmission of an assignment or work for evaluation which essentially constitutes an assignment or work which had already been the object of an academic evaluation at the University or in another institution of learning, except when a prior authorization had been granted by the professor; Obtaining through theft, scheming, manoeuvring or corruption questions or of answers of exams or of any other non-authorized document or material, or of a non-deserved evaluation; The possession or use, before or during an exam, of any non-authorized document; The use during an exam of the copy of an exam belonging to another person; Obtaining non-authorized help or assistance, whether it be collective or individual; The falsification of a document, in particular, of a document transmitted by the University or of a document from the University which has been transmitted or not to a third party or person, under any circumstance; The falsification of research data in an assignment or work, in particular, in a thesis, dissertation, a “mémoire-création”, a report on a practical training, stage, or a research project; The penalties for the above infractions are specified in article 3 of Regulation no. 18; For additional information on academic infractions and on how to avoid them, please see: www.integrite.uqam.ca

Policy statement on Sexual harassment (Policy 16)

Sexual harassment is defined as a unilateral and unwanted verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature with the effect of compromising the recipient's rights including the right to fair and reasonable conditions of employment or education and the right to the safeguard of dignity.

According to Policy 16, harassing conduct includes:

1. Making persistent or abusive sexual requests that are unwanted.
2. Making suggestive remarks, comments, jokes, or subjecting someone to persistent verbal abuse of a sexual nature that could adversely affect the recipient's work or educational environment.
3. Making sexual advances or persistent unwanted proposals of a sexual nature.
4. Physical contact, fondling, pinching, patting, rubbing, and unwanted kissing.
5. Making submission to or rejection of the above cited conduct the basis for employment or educational decisions.
6. Any acts of voyeurism or exhibitionism
7. The use of physical violence to pressure or force the recipient to have sexual contact or unwanted sexual intimacy with oneself.
8. Any other offensive behavior that is of a sexual nature and is unwanted.

For further information on sexual harassment policy, please visit our website:

http://www.instances.uqam.ca/ReglementsPolitiquesDocuments/Documents/Politique_no_16.pdf

Anyone who wishes to speak and or report incidents of sexual harassment to the Sexual Harassment Prevention Office may get in touch with us at:

514-987-3000, poste 0886

<http://www.harcelement.uqam.ca>

IV. BIBLIOGRAPHY

Mandatory book:

Desbordes, M. and A. Richelieu (2012). Global Sport Marketing. Contemporary Issues and Practice. London, UK: Routledge Publishers.

Nota bene 1: It is expected that the mandatory book is in each and every student possession; the readings must be done.

Nota bene 2: Please, note that I will go above and beyond the book during our lectures. Each week, the chapters must be read in order to prepare for the class content and discussions. But by no means shall I repeat the book chapters during our classes.

Course site on moodle:

The course site can be accessed at <http://www.moodle.uqam.ca>. I invite all students to visit the site regularly for the course slides, internet links, updates, information and pedagogical surprises! Should you have a specific question for the professor, please contact me directly by e-mail, phone or in person, not via the forum.

Nota bene: Check the syllabus before sending questions for which you already have the answer(s).

OFFICIAL VERSION

V. COURSE OUTLINE^{© 3}

Date	Content	Preliminary reading	Task
Week 1 September 7	Introduction. Course objectives and expectations. Syllabus. Major trends in the sports industry.	Articles and other documents on “moodle”.	Teams for the first presentation: topic and team members transmitted in writing to the professor. Exercise to be done by the students: Identify five major trends in the sports industry today.
Week 2 September 14	“Sportainment”: the merger of sports and entertainment.	Desbordes & Richelieu, Introduction + Chapter 7. Articles and other documents on “moodle”.	Last day to finalize your team for the first presentation.
Week 3 September 21	“Fan-actors”: co-creators and ambassadors of the sports organization / actor / brand.	Articles and other documents on “moodle”.	Exercise to be prepared and brought to class. Last day to finalize your team for the semester project. 1 presentation.
Week 4 September 28	Building and managing a sports brand.	Desbordes & Richelieu, Chapter 1.	1 presentation.

^{© 3} For information purposes only. We may elaborate on certain items depending on the level of interest of students or difficulty of the topic. Furthermore, I am not responsible for events outside of my control that occur during the semester which may disrupt the class and / or the semester.

		Articles and other documents on "moodle".
Week 5 October 5	Branding strategies 1.	Desbordes & Richelieu, Chapters 3 & 6. Articles and other documents on "moodle".	2 presentations.
Week 6 October 12	Branding strategies 2. Preparation for the mid-term exam.	Articles and other documents on "moodle".	1 presentation.
Week 7 October 19	Mid-term exam
Week 8 October 26	Developing a value proposition for fans via pricing strategies.	Articles and other documents on "moodle".	1 presentation.
Week 9 November 2	Multipurpose arenas.	Desbordes & Richelieu, Chapter 8. Articles and other documents on "moodle".	1 presentation.
Week 10 November 9	Organizing and managing sporting events 1.	Desbordes & Richelieu, Chapter 4. Articles and other documents on "moodle".
Week 11 November 16	Organizing and managing events 2.	Desbordes & Richelieu, Chapter 5. Articles and other documents on "moodle".

Week 12 November 23	Ethical issues in sports.	Articles and other documents on "moodle".	Two weeks left before the semester project due date: Time to wrap things up!
Week 13 November 30	Internationalization and globalization of sports 1.	Desbordes & Richelieu, Chapter 2. Articles and other documents on "moodle".	1 presentation (if necessary).
Week 14 December 7	Internationalization and globalization of sports 2. End of content. Synthesis of syntheses to crystallize our learnings. Job opportunities in the sports industry. Preparation for the final exam.	Desbordes & Richelieu, Conclusion. Articles and other documents on "moodle".	Semester projects deadline AND presentations. What have I learnt in this class? What competencies can I bring to a sports organization? Identification of sports marketing job and research opportunities.
Week 15 December 14	Final exam

Wishing you an enjoyable semester of sports!

VI. CROSS EVALUATION FORM FOR THE TWO PRESENTATIONS

STUDENT NAME: _____

In the table below, you shall assess the contribution of each and every team member, including yours, by providing a grade between 0 and 100%. Be fair and respectful, please!

Name of the team member	Grade of the team member out of 100%
Member 1:	Grade:
Member 2:	Grade:
Member 3:	Grade:
Member 4:	Grade:
Member 5:	Grade:
Member 6:	Grade:
Member 7:	Grade: